“Consider the Lilies of the Field”

Greetings to all our iris friends. To those of you who can visit our garden, we extend a cordial welcome and shall look forward to seeing you. Many visitors last summer enjoyed strolling through the fields to see our seedling beds when several thousand new iris were in bloom.

Among the new iris we are not able to list because of limited stock but will sell at the garden, are the following: Tinted Porcelain, my best June bloomer—a pale lavender self, outstanding, the pinks—Cherie and Pink Cameo. The deep purples—Indiana Night, Deep Velvet and Black Forest. Yellows—Desert Song and Illinois. Others are Red Torch, Pinnacle (an amoena), Melody Lane, Distance—a delightful pale blue. Among the Fall bloomers or ever-blooming irises, is Improved Fall Velvet.

Time to Visit Garden

June bloom begins May 25 and lasts until June 15; Fall bloom starts in August during wet years and comes in September if the season is very dry and continues up to heavy frosts about November 1.
